Why Not Give Jesus Your Life

© Copyright 2011 Toni L. Wotherly, Esq.

Can you hear Him calling your name?

Do you feel Him speaking to your heart?

Once you confess Him, life will never be the same

From those who are His, He will never part

Why not give Jesus your life?

Why not give Jesus your heart?

Accept Him, confess His name, and be saved

In Him, you'll have brand new life

In Him, you'll have a new start

Accept Him, confess His name, and be saved

Sad to see so many souls
Longing for something new
When they could be so satisfied
If they would only look to You
If I could tell them just one thing
I'd praise Your Holy name
Let them know with Jesus Christ
Their lives won't be the same

It's so easy to say
What others do so wrong
I can't believe they don't know You
I've known You so long
Can't they see how you've changed me?
How You made me strong?
Or am I living like You're not there?
Am I living like You're not there

How will they know
Of Your great love?
If I say You're within me
But put myself above them
Who am I to look down
Who am I to judge
When I know You
And live like You're not there at all

Sad to know that my soul is always
Longing for something new
When I could be so satisfied
If I would just look to You
If I could change something
I'd just be still and know You're God
I'd stop living like You're not there
I'd stand back and live in awe

Living in Victory

Living in Victory

Not by my own two feet

But with Him who's guiding me

Standing right beside me

Living in victory

No longer accepting defeat

God's in control

No weapon formed

Can conquer me

E9

Lord, you truly know me

A9

When I rise and when I fall

Cmaj9

Every thought I think...Every step I take

Gmaj9

Every dream I dream...You know all my ways

D2...A9

You know every word I am about to say

E9

You are behind me and in front of me

A9

With Your hand on me

Cmaj9...Gmaj9

Your arms constantly embracing me

E9

I don't understand

A9

How You love me like only You can

Cmaj9...E9

But this is what I know

Cmaj9...Gmaj9

There is nowhere I can go where you can't find me

Cmaj9...Gmaj9

There is no path I can take where You're not there

Cmaj9...Gmaj9

There is no place high or low where you won't hear me

E9...A9(no 3rd)

I can fly into sky...I can sail across the sea

E9...A9(no 3rd)

Knowing that You will be there for me

Cmaj9...Gmaj9

Your Love...will lead...me and... hold me 2x

Even in the darkness

Your Light will shine on me

On the cloudiest day

You can still light the way

You still guide my path

You know what to say

You know every step I will take

You have covered me and protected me

From the I was born

Made fearfully and wonderfully

E9

I don't understand

A9

How You love me like only You can

Cmaj9...E9

But this is what I know

There is nowhere I can go where you can't find me

There is no path I can take where You're not there

There is no place high or low where you won't hear me

I can fly into sky...I can sail across the sea

Knowing that You will be there for me

Your Love will lead me and hold me

Psalm 9 (Safe With You)

Lord, I'm thanking You
Singing of Your grace
Enemies tried to hurt me
But stumbled on their face
When I needed You, You were there
Throwing the godless of their game,
You wouldn't let them get the best of me
Erased them from the halls of fame

I know it's alright
I know that I'm safe with You
I know it's alright
I know I'm safe with you

You're a safe-house for the battered
A sanctuary in bad times
As Your child I can find rest in You
The moment I arrive

You keep Your eye on me
Hear every whimper, every cry.
I'll write the book on Hallelujahs;
Because You dry my weeping eyes

When they ask why I love the Lord	D
When they question why I bless His name	Em
When they talk about me 'cause they've seen all that I've been through	G A7
I will hold my head up high	D
And give Him all the praise	Em
Because I....	G
I know the truth	A7

I was wounded beaten and broken, but	D
I'm still here	Em
I've been lied on, cheated and scarred, but	G
I'm still here	A7
So, no matter what I face	D
When I look in the mirror all I see is grace	Em
I will praise Him everyday	G
'Cause I'm still here	D

When they ask why I lift my hands
When they look confused 'cause they don't understand
When they mock me because they've seen all the time when I fall
I will hold my head up high
And give Him all the praise
Because He....
Always answers my call

I'm still here because God had a plan better	Em
Than anything I could know	A7
I'm still here because Jesus died for me	Em
'Cause love me so	A7

I Know

Why do I feel so all alone	E9
When I know You're here with me	A9
Why am I ashamed of sins long gone	E9
When I know You've set me free	A9
Why do I give in to my fears	D2
Trying to drown in my own tears	A9

When I know that You love me so	E9...A9
When I know sometimes it hurts to grow	E9...A9
When I know You're always by my side	E9...A9
When I know You'll always be my guide	E9...A9
When I know You've never failed me so	D2...A9
Don't ever let me go	A9...D2
Though it doesn't always show	D2...A9
Your love is all I know	A9...E9

Why do I give in to my doubt
When I know that I am blessed
Why do I forget You brought me out
When my life was a mess
Why do I give in to my flesh
When in Your arms I can rest

When I know that You live inside my soul
When I know that Heaven is my goal
When I know there's a hole only You can fill
When I know I need to walk inside Your Will
When I know You've never failed me so
Don't ever let me go
Though it doesn't always show
Your love is all I know

I laid awake I prayed and prayed D
That her healing would arrive G
I thought that she was getting better D
She was so full of love and life G
Then the phone rang and off I drove Em
Only to get there too late G
I didn't get to say goodbye Em
I'll never forget that day G

Though the pain seemed like too much to handle D
Though the tears felt like they'd never end A
I know she's safe in Jesus' arms right where she belongs Em
And in my despair He holds my hand A

He's still God G
Even when I face the darkest hours D
He can still hear my cries A
He still holds all the power D
He's still there G
Even when it seems too much to bear D
Although I know life can be hard A
I also know that He's still God D

Seems I can't turn on the news
Without a story of violence and slaughter
It's like life is not valued anymore
People are killing their own sons and daughters
They are so self-consumed and they don't think
Of the victims they leave behind
Just senseless acts with torturous costs
It truly blows my mind

Though it seems the enemy is too much to handle
Though the devil may think that he has won
I know in the end that my God wins
All these earthly battles belong to the Lord

He's still God
Even when we face the darkest hours
He can still hear our cries
He still holds all the power
He's still there
Even when it seems too much to bear
Although I know life can be hard
I also know that He's still God

Split the Sea

Raise up a king

There's no end to what my God can do

Turn water into wine

Heal the lame

Help the blind

Take on my sins

Humbly bleed

Rise from the dead

Just trust in Him

But You never gave up	Em

Amazing love	Em
That flows from on High	C9
Unending love	A7
That will never die	A7
I don't deserve	Em
The grace You give	C9
Your amazing mercy let me live	A7
Now my life is Yours	Em
My love is Yours	C9
My faith is Yours	A7
My song is Yours	A7
The way You love	Em
The way You love	C9
The way You love	A7
Is truly amazing	Em

When I ran way
You kept looking for me
You knew I'd return
There's nowhere else I should be
I thought I could do it
On my own
But when I walked without You I was all alone
I can't change the things
That I've done
But for a sinner like me You gave Your son
I can't imagine where
I would be
If my faith didn't look up to Thee

'Cause it will never be enough D

I could write
A million songs
To praise You all day long
For supplying all my needs

All my prayer
Just won't add up
To all the comfort
You have given me

And all my apologies
Can never amount
To the love you had
When Your Son died to set me free

It will never
Never be enough
I can never repay
For your mercy and grace
It will never
Never be enough
But I'll still give You praise
Everyday
'Cause it will never be enough
